- How should I recover my dog Harry, given that he went missing in the last 4 hours and no one is preventing me from recovering him?
  - By searching the neighborhood
    - By, ourselves, searching the neighborhood
      - By searching first in the direction of the oncoming wind, where dogs tend to travel
      - By searching first in one of the other three directions
    - By getting others to search the neighborhood
      - By enlisting others to search for free
        - By enlisting neighbors to search the neighborhood
        - By enlisting friends to search the neighborhood
        - By enlisting coworkers to search the neighborhood
      - By enlisting others to search for a reward
        - By hiring a specialist
        - By hiring kids from the neighborhood
        - By hiring other people
  - By tracking Harry's chip or ID tag
  - By informing people likely to know about missing animals
    - By informing pet associations
    - By informing animal agencies/shelters
    - By informing vet offices
    - By informing police/fire departments
  - By posting announcements
    - By posting physical announcements
      - By posting announcements in shops
      - By posting announcements on objects in street
        - By posting signs on light posts
        - By posting signs on trees
        - By posting signs on cars
        - By posting signs in mailboxes
    - By posting virtual announcements
      - By posting virtual announcements online
        - By posting on social media sites
        - By posting on sites that specialize in lost pets
          - By posting an ad on petharbor.com
          - By posting an ad on cap4pets.org/programs/lost-found-pets
        - By posting on sites that specialize in our neighborhood
      - By posting virtual announcements in the press
  - By reading announcements
    - By reading announcements in the "found" ads of local newspapers
      - By reading announcements in the Houston Chronicle
      - By reading announcements in the neighborhood's newspaper
    - By reading announcements on websites
      - By reading announcements on websites specialized in pets
        - By reading announcements on Houston SPCA website
        - By reading announcements on HoustonLostPets.com
        - By reading announcements on FidoFinder.com
      - By reading announcements on websites specialized in ads
        - By reading announcements on Craig's List
        - By reading announcements on Houston eBay classified
  - By enabling Harry to come back on his own
    - By enabling Harry to smell the house/me
    - By enabling Harry to hear the house/me
      - By calling him
      - By whistling
      - By making a noise in the house known to bring him back
    - By enabling Harry to see the house/me